2005 Touriga Nacional Port

VINEYARDS

Our 92-acre estate was first planted in 1884 and is sustainably farmed. In the late 1990's, founders Phil Wente and Sergio Traverso began planting traditional Portuguese grape varieties, including Touriga Nacional. These grapes are ideal for port, as well as elements of blended wines such as the Murrieta's Well Zarzuela.

WINE STYLE

The Touriga Nacional was partially fermented in stainless steel tanks, then fortified with oak aged brandy, then placed back into barrels. This results in a big, rich, fruit-filled port.

FLAVOR PROFILE

Enjoy the aromas of ripe date and plum, with a hint of chocolate syrup and hot fudge. Plummy character dominates, but nuances of wood show through with a wonderful marriage of fruit and sweetness on the palate. Elegant, supple, velvety mid-palate with a bright, fruity finish.

VARIETALS

100% Touriga Nacional

AGING

Aged in 2 year old oak barrels to impart a mild oak influence as well as a smooth mouthfeel.

THE WINERY

Murrieta's Well is named after the legendary gold rush-era desperado, Joaquin Murrieta, who camped by the artesian well on the property on his way to Mexico to sell wild horses. As Joaquin rummaged throughout the Valley rounding up horses to bring back to Mexico, he also searched for other treasures to share with his family and friends. Today we continue this tradition of discovery with the wines of Los Tesoros – the treasures. Los Tesoros are sold only at Murrieta's Well winery and are selected by the founders Sergio Traverso and Philip Wente as true riches of the Livermore Valley.
